

I urge you to retain the present rules for ownership of the media.
I oppose any vote which would lead to more media consolidation. The people of the United States must have the greatest diversity of broadcast information possible in order to express their full citizenship.